a. The Soviet border guard details are no longer performing border duty but are patrolling the respective border sectors in order to check on the German border police.

b. The personnel of the Soviet border guard details (mostly very young troops, some with tank insignia) have been very often exchanged after early June 1949, allegedly in order to be sent to troop training grounds to participate in exercises held there.

c. The "Guards" badge was observed on officers and NCOs of the border guard details.
